Rules & Procedures

The Land Use Board is a quasi-judicial body which decides on applications for variances based upon the testimony of all parties, including the applicant, expert witnesses, objectors and upon any maps or documents properly put in evidence.

Since the Board sits in a quasi-judicial capacity, it is neither the prosecutor for the applicant nor the objector. It is the applicant's responsibility to make sure the needed evidence is presented. It is the objector's responsibility to make sure the appropriate facts sustaining any objection are brought forth in the evidence.

Any Person interested in finding out more about the application or any person wishing to object may pose proper questions to the applicant and the applicants witnesses and at the close of the applicant's case may then be sworn in to give testimony or may present witnesses or proper documentary evidence in opposition to the application.

An applicant or interested person or objector may appear with an attorney. An attorney is required if the applicant is incorporated.

The Land Use Board shall consist of seven voting members appointed by the Town Council, with the qualifications for the terms and for the purposes as prescribed by the laws of the State of New Jersey and the Zoning Ordinance of the Town of Clinton.

The Board shall have those powers as outlined in the Zoning Ordinance of the Town of Clinton and as prescribed by the laws of New Jersey. Copies may be obtained for a fee of $20.00 from the Town Clerk.
